1.2 Concept

A healthy diet means that we do not consume too much or too little (energy intake balanced with energy use) and that the composition of food (mainly important nutrients) follows the recommendations from the Health Council. For an infant, this means that the child receives breastfeeding or formula milk or a combination thereof.

1.3 Mindmap

1.4 Purpose

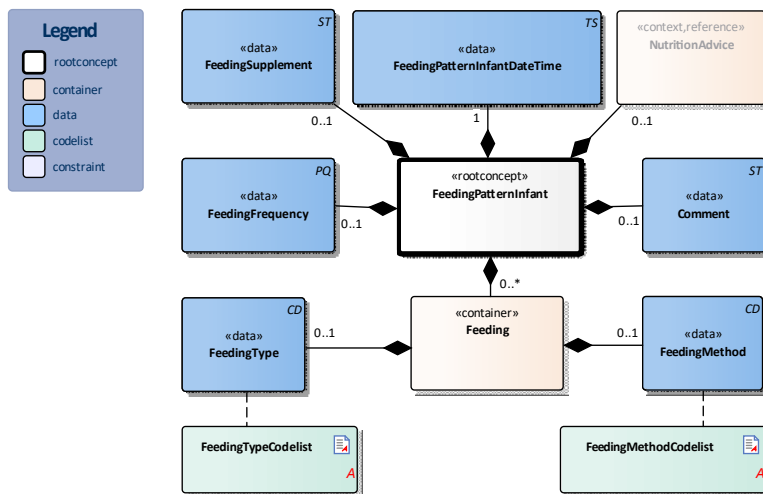

The purpose is to register which type of feeding the infant receives and when, to enable early estimation whether there are problems or whether the care surrounding feeding the infant can be taken over.

1.5 Patient Population

1.6 Evidence Base

The definitions of the concepts were (partly) based on the Multidisciplinary guideline Breastfeeding by the NCJ.
